

Larry Beaupre, Proskauer Rose, LLP

Laurier W. Beaupre is a Partner in the Corporate Department and a member of the Private Investment Funds Group at Proskauer. His practice focuses on representing private equity fund managers in fund formations and with respect to succession planning and other firm governance issues.

Larry represents numerous fund-of-funds, public pension plans and other institutions as investors in private equity funds worldwide; provides advice on compliance with the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and the Investment Company Act of 1940; and represents private equity funds and other institutions as investors in privately held operating companies.

Larry also develops and presents continuing legal education programs on private equity fund formation, regulatory and governance issues. He currently leads the firm's task force on "pay to play" issues regarding solicitation of government pension plans by third-party marketers.

Before joining Proskauer, Larry was a member of the Private Equity Group at Testa, Hurwitz & Thibault, LLP, where his practice also included general representation of venture-backed operating companies in the life sciences, software and Internet sectors. While there, he also served as a firm "domain specialist" on the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Larry is a graduate of Boston College Law School (magna cum laude, Order of the Coif) and Boston University School of Management (MBA with Honors).
